

Dear FCC, Your prosposed change to mandate full time recording of all radio broadcasts is another layer of needless expense, we small market broadcasters do not deserve. We count on our listeners to keep us in check and they always do. Please pay attention to the details of what has been proposed and how that will impact the economics of small market radio. Thank you for consideration of my views.

Gary Exline
General Manager